Freshman Direct Admits: All students accepted directly as freshman into the Criminology and Criminal Justice major will undergo an Academic Review at 45 credits (earned at Maryland) in order to remain in the major. The Academic Review criteria include:

- Completion of MATH107 or STAT100 with a grade of C- or higher. A calculus class (MATH120, 130, 140) with a grade of C- or higher may be substituted.
- Completion of CCJS 100 with a grade of C- or higher
- Completion of CCJS 105 with a grade of C- or higher
- A minimum grade point average of 2.0 in all course work taken at the University of Maryland

Transfer Admission Requirements: Students beyond their first semester and those off campus wishing to transfer are required to meet the following gateway criteria prior to applying to the major:

- Completion of MATH107 or STAT100 with a grade of C- or higher. A calculus class (MATH120, 130, 140) with a grade of C- or higher may be substituted.
 - Completion of CCJS 100 with a grade of C- or higher
 - Completion of CCJS 105 with a grade of C- or higher
 - A minimum grade point average of 2.5 in all college level coursework is required

PLEASE NOTE

- Only one gateway or performance review course may be repeated to earn the required grade and that course may only be repeated once.
 - When more than one course can satisfy a gateway requirement, taking a second course from the list will count as a repeat.
 - Students may apply only once to an LEP. Students who are directly admitted and fail to meet the performance review criteria will be dismissed from the major and may not reapply.
 - Students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00. Failure to do so will result in dismissal from the major.
 - Any student denied admission or dismissed from the major may appeal directly to the Assistant Dean of the College.
